About Us

Space constraints have become a constant issue, paving the way for innovative solutions like Portable Cabins. As the name suggests, these are temporary structures designed for easy transportation, installation, and relocation. Ideal for various settings, these cabins simplify both living and working conditions. Due to the rising demand for durable and fast-to-install housing, many companies have entered the portable cabin market. Among these, Spectra Star Industries, based in Hyderabad, stands out for transforming fabrication challenges into quality-driven solutions.

We are a leading Supplier, Manufacturer, Trader of a wide range of portable cabins including Plasto Portable Security Cabin, Puff Portable Cabins, Portable Pantry, Puff Portable Security Cabin, Puff Container Office, and more. Our offerings are widely appreciated for their modern design, aesthetics, safety features, and optimal space utilization. With a team of skilled professionals, we ensure each cabin is fabricated with attention to detail, uniqueness, and structural integrity to meet customer expectations. We are also known as a reliable service provider offering cost-effective services.
