About Us

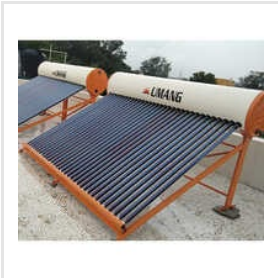

Umang Solar is a specialist in the solar products market. We started in 2012 and since then have been fulfilling requirements of the market with our effective products such as Home Solar Water Heater, Roof Solar Water Heater, Stainless Steel Solar Water Heater, Solar Outdoor Street Light, Solar Street Light, and more.

We are a well-established solar products manufacturing company, which develops products of the international standards. We have modern machines, tools, facilities and skilled workforce to efficiently handle our operations and enable us to register a good supply of our products. Our solar heaters and lights are praised for their strong construction, low maintenance, high durability, and modern designs. They are extensively chosen over electronics due to their benefit of reducing the electricity bills.
