This is 69th year we are celebrating Republic Day. After uncountable sacrifices of our freedom fighters, we got independence on 15th August 1947. We have to thank all of them. I salute all those freedom fighters. Along with them, we have other heroes too, who wrote our constitution which is biggest constitutions in the world. After the amendment of the constitution, we became “A Republic of India”, and the day is 26th January 1950.
