About Us

Unity, accountability and honesty are the founding pillars of our company. Imbibing these core values in our work culture, we, Ganpati Surgicals, aim to be looked upon as one of the reliable businesses in the market. Quality is another reason that makes us a company worth associating with. To offer premium quality Latex Examination Gloves, 12 Ply Sterilized Gauze Swab, Bouffant Cap, Face Shield Isolation Mask, Zigzag Cotton Pleats, Examination Gloves and 90 Gsm Laminated Cover Suit, we pay strict attention to even the minute details during production. Thus, ensuring our products remain in compliance with the industrial quality standards. Owing to our modern infrastructural facility, we have earned a great reputation of a manufacturer. For maintaining excellent goodwill in the market, we always prioritize the demands of our customers. By understanding their requirements thoroughly, we suffice those accordingly. This is the main reason behind our set up of such a large customer base.

Ganpati Surgicals is known for its industrial experience. From the year 2014, we have been offering unmatched quality of Latex Examination Gloves, Face Shield Isolation Mask, Bouffant Cap and more. The main objective of our New Delhi, Delhi, India, established company is to win the trust of our clients by delivering the quality assured range of products at competitive prices. We use the best transportation mode for ensuring that all the goods reach the sites of our clients without any damages. Moreover, all the business policies are formed while keeping in view the interests of all our business partners and not just us. With us, our clients have assurance of receiving the best shopping experience.

Hygiene Maintenance

Working in a healthcare industry means stringently maintaining all the hygiene parameters. Guided by our mentor, Mr. Nittin Thapar, our management ensures our employees perform their tasks wearing personal protection equipment to avoid human touch. Moreover, all our employees take necessary precautions while handling Latex Examination Gloves, Zigzag Cotton Pleats and more. Also, all our offered goods are carefully sanitized before packaging.
