About Us

Bharti Engineers has been one of the leading manufacturing company in the Indian electrical industry since 1981. We have carved a niche in the domestic as well international markets by offering precision engineered range of electrical products for application in a plethora of industries, sectors, commercial and residential establishments, etc. An ISO 9001:2000 certified company, we are known as the leading manufacturer of a premium range of Servo Voltage Stabilizers, Automatic Voltage Controller, Electro Plating Rectifiers, Distribution & Power Transformers, Isolation Transformers, Furnace Transformer, HT stabilizer, and Electrical Distribution Panel. Our products are the best source of power management, current distribution at various places.

Bharti Engineers hold vast years of experience and expertise in manufacturing a quality approved range of Electric Arc Furnace Transformer, Power Distribution Panels, Electro Plating Rectifiers, Voltage Regulators, etc.. Our company is counted among the trusted manufacturers, exporters and supplier of the industry. The offered range of chrome plating rectifiers is used for Dc application and is fabricated using only premium quality raw materials/components. Moreover, these are designed specially to suit client specific needs and in accordance to the industry set standards. Our plating rectifiers are appreciated for salient features like high efficiency, anti-corrosive nature, cost effectiveness, low power consumption, easy installation and maintenance, and durability.
