About Us

Since 1979, the Bharti Enterprise has been dedicated to designing and manufacturing high-quality brass components, brass ceramic cartridges, brass inserts, brass nozzles, and PCB brass terminals. As a primary manufacturer and exporter, we have made significant efforts to ensure that our products are the highest possible quality. As a result, we have established a strong position in the industry due to our deep understanding of the subject, diligent effort, and clear-sighted attitude. We seek new chances and use cutting-edge technology to create an excellent selection of Brass Precision Turned Components that are ideal, including dimension, design, toughness, simplicity of installation, and lifespan. In addition, all of our products, such as fasteners and industrial components, are well-designed and cost-effective.

The offered Brass Components are composed of high-quality raw materials such as Brass, ensuring long-term durability. These are also flawless in quality, form, and size and were created utilising cutting-edge technology. Brass Components are known for their corrosion resistance, excellent polish, dust-free nature and high tensile strength. Because of these characteristics, our components are widely used in various sectors, including electrical, construction, electronics, automobiles, sanitation, and other industrial applications. The offered products are heavily exported to the United States, United Kingdom, Middle East, Asia, and other European countries.

We are a forward-thinking and fast-growing firm. Thus we are constantly improving our production technique and improving the quality of our Brass Components. We also stay up with changing technical developments, industry standards, and customer application requirements. It allows us to keep in front of the competition and provide excellent service to our customers.
