About Us

We, Shiva Polymers, are seen as one of the most trustworthy PP granules manufacturers in India. With the rising popularity of our granules amongst the plastic businesses due to their nonpareil quality is the reason that we have our customers not only within the boundaries of this nation, but Internationally. Over the years, we have expanded our bounds and leaps to be a reliable exporter and manufacturer of White PP Granules, PP Milky Granules, Brown PPCP Granules, HDPE Granules and PP Raffia Transparent Granules. Impeccable quality and reasonable price range are two key strengths of our products focusing on which we have been continuously growing globally. We constantly invest in our R&D and other facilities to not only remain competitive in the market, but offer complete customer contentment to our clients. Besides, we follow customer-oriented approaches to ensure the same.

We are a team of 50 diligent employees. Each one of whom put cent percent efforts to bring into limelight only the best range of products including HDPE Granules and PP Milky Granules. Their proficiency ensures we attain all our set targets within the stipulated time period. Besides, their zeal and dedication towards the company is the reason that we are still thriving in this domain of cut-throat competition.

We believe in achieving complete customer contentment by offering our customers a qualitative range of products. This is why our company has appointed a small group of quality analysts to focus on our product quality. They make use of our advanced testing equipment for well-maintaining our PP Milky Granules, HDPE Granules and more, in terms of usage, color resistance, etc.
