A black and white photograph of a woman's face, tilted slightly to the left. Her eyes are closed, and her hair is pulled back. A large splash of water is hitting her face, particularly around her eyes and forehead. The water droplets are frozen in time, creating a dynamic and refreshing visual. The background is a plain, light color.

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a white chef's hat and a white long-sleeved chef's coat, is smiling at the camera. She is standing in a kitchen, washing a red bell pepper under a modern, chrome kitchen faucet. Water is spraying from the faucet onto the pepper. In the background, there are white kitchen cabinets, a grey countertop, and a glass bowl containing several oranges. The text "for Joyful kitchens" is overlaid on the image in a white, sans-serif font.
