About Us

We, P.D Engineering Co., were incorporated with a vision to reach the pinnacle of success by supplying advanced industrial High Mast Winches. As one of the leading manufacturers, suppliers and traders, we have well integrated our advanced production and design processes to lend a unique edge to our product line. We have state of the art headquarters in Howrah, West Bengal, where we expertly execute our operations in a streamlined manner. In order to produce a variety of mast winches with total quality assurance, we have installed advanced machinery at our setup. We adjust and adapt to the requirements of the changing market and emphasize customer demands to display our best efforts and serve buyers to the best of our caliber.

Our company has achieved several business milestones and is successfully heading towards bright future goals. This has been possible because of the excellent leadership of Mr. Pradipta Das (Owner), whose mentorship and encouragement have helped our team in working efficiently and attain the individual as well as shared vision of the company.
