About Us

Vishat Velvet is the illustrious velvet fabric manufacturer and supplier based in Surat, Gujarat, India. Formed in 2010, company is considered as one of the finest producers of velvet in Surat. Our extensive array of products includes Micro Velvet 9000 Fabric, Digital printed fabric, Micro 9000 Printed Velvet Fabric and many more, which captures massive attention of buyers because of its impeccable quality. We strive to provide best quality of product with its smooth and on time delivery to all our customers.

Vishat Velvet is proud to be known as a flagship company of a highly renowned, Vishat Group, that holds a powerful belief in Commitment to High-quality and Superior Service. Journey of Vishat group was started back in 1990 with establishment of its first manufacturing unit in Surat and since then we are meeting the needs of customers, providing superior quality of fabric. The corporate office and production facility of the company is located in Vadod Bamroli Road, Surat. Infrastructure/ Manufacturing Unit Creating an ineffaceable impression in the tough market competition is not at all difficult with the assistance of a well-equipped infrastructure. Knowing that the customers have a strong preference for companies that own the best infrastructure facilities, we have established a state-of-the-art infrastructure, which is spread into a wide area of 4,500 square feet. Our infrastructure is equipped with all the advanced facilities that are required for offering best in class range of fabric to the customers. Our manufacturing unit is installed with advanced German and Korean machineries and having weaving capacity of around 3,50,000 meters per month. Our infrastructure is segregated into several units such as designing, production, quality checking, warehousing and more which helps in smooth execution of tasks. We are glad to have installed advanced and robust machinery in all the units as it provides smooth and safe operations, helping us fulfill customers requirements on time.
