About Us

Formed in 1993, City Storage Systems is a quality-focused company that is working from so many years to suffice requirements of numerous customers by providing unmatched quality of Heavy Duty Rack, Heavy Duty Storage Rack, Skeleton Heavy Duty Rack, Compactor System, Heavy Duty Systems, and much more. As a trusted Manufacturer, we make use of German technology and quality-approved materials for making offered range. By supplying unmatched quality of products to customers, our business entity has attained glorious recognition in diverse marketplaces. Our whole offered product range is dimensionally accurate and is developed by our skilled team of technocrats who hold extreme knowledge of this domain. We give huge importance to the factor of 'Quality'. Each produce is made using quality-assured materials which are procured from trusted vendors of the markets. Sturdy construction, easy retrieval of stored goods, optimum space utilization, attractive look and high tensile strength are few out of many striking attributes of our range. Offered range finds extensive usage in office complexes, departmental stores, malls and food bazaars, for storage purposes. Reason behind our accelerated growth is no other but the excellent market strategies of our mentor 'Mr Mahendra Gorgee'. His right way of doing business has helped us in winning loyalty of so many clients.

Situated in Mumbai (Maharashtra, India), our company, City Storage Systems is a long-standing business enterprise that is well-acquainted with exact customers requirements. We know deep concerns of customers pertaining to quality; this is the reason we rigorously examine offered range on diverse parameters to avoid possibilities of errors. We have established spacious storage facility where manufactured line is stored carefully in categories to avoid hassle-free transportation process. Incoming and outgoing of stock is well documented by our efficient warehouse keepers. Our business entity has acquired high market growth because of well-formed marketing policies, customer-focused approaches and excellent financial stability.
