Services We Offer

All Types of Printing : We provide a wide range of fabric printing solutions to meet diverse branding and design requirements. Using high-quality inks and modern machinery, our printing ensures sharp designs, long-lasting colors, and excellent wash durability.

DTF (Direct-to-Film) Printing : DTF printing allows high-resolution designs with vibrant colors and exceptional detail. This technique is ideal for complex graphics, logos, and multicolor artwork.

Sublimation Printing : Our sublimation printing service is perfect for polyester-based garments and sportswear. This method delivers long-lasting prints that do not crack, peel, or fade, as the ink becomes part of the fabric itself. Sublimation is ideal for lightweight apparel, jerseys, and performance wear requiring breathability and comfort.
