

Heat Shrinkable Termination Kit Global Kit

Product Overview

The Heat Shrinkable Termination Kit is designed for insulation sealing and protection of medium and high voltage cables. It ensures reliable performance in electrical installations.

Key Components

Heat shrink tubes

Molded breakout boot

Stress control materials

Shield braid

Copper lugs and hardware

Features

High insulation strength

Moisture resistant

Easy installation

Long service life

Applications

Power distribution

Substations

Industrial installations

Cable termination systems