Born in a family traditionally engaged in manufacture of machines, Hitesh Panchal had a very strong back ground in the field. Being entrepreneur in the field of machine manufacturing, it was a dream of Mr. Hitesh Panchal which he had achieved in a very young age. The strong family background and a vision with determination are the key strength of Mr. Hitesh Panchal. Initially he had started his professional life with one of the local manufacturing firm of a Dewatering Screw Press in Ahmedabad. The success & acceptance of his hard work inspired him to being an entrepreneur in the field of manufacturing and the fruit comes out as Jash Engineering Systems, currently serving both National and International markets. An ordinary man becomes an extraordinary with his vision, strong determination, hard work and being innovative. With the establishment of Jash Engineering Systems, he dedicated himself to mastering the art and science of manufacturing Dewatering Screw Press.
