About Us

Steel based products have long been used by many different industries, which has eventually enabled many corporations to present their product range in the market. We, Prakash Steel Company are well known for the diverse array of our steel products we offer as a supplier, trader and wholesaler. Since the year 1979, we have attained success by bringing forward a diverse selection of steel products which includes Galvanized Roofing Sheets, Jindal TMT Bar, Iron and Steel Block, Structural Steel Flat Bar, Industrial Chequered Plate, etc. Over the time, all of these products have become widely known because of high strength, premium finishing, optimum durability and excellent corrosion resistance. Besides, constant focus on high standards has made us a company to bank upon for availing aforementioned products along with beneficial deals.

There are many companies in the steel industry but not all of them can deliver steel products of good quality. Unlike some, at, Prakash Steel Company we concentrate on offering not good but an excellent quality steel products. We have developed our company premises in the capital city, New Delhi, Delhi, India, from where we easily deliver a wide range of steel products including GI Plain Sheets, Mild Steel Square Pipe, Industrial MS Tee, Industrial HR Steel Sheets, MS Plain Plates, etc. All these products are manufactured by some of the top steel producers of the industry and when we receive the products from them, we make sure to test these on various parameters before shipping to required places.
