About Us

The journey of Prayag Polymers Private Limited as a manufacturer, supplier and exporter was started in the year 1986 with an aim of adding a touch of elegance, grace and convenience to living with production and innovation of sanitaryware, pipes, hardware fittings and more, under the guidance of Mr. V.K. Aggarwal (Managing Director). In the year 2008, our company witnessed spectacular growth under the leadership of skilled and talented Mr. Nitin Aggarwal (CEO). It is in the same year that company launched a new line of steel sinks, seat covers, bath fittings and more for residential and commercial purposes. In the span of three decades, company has acquired ISO 9000:2015 Certification for ensuring quality based designing and fabrication of Bathroom Shower, Wash Basin, Kitchen Sink, Door Stopper, CPVC Pipe Fittings and related products. We have successfully revolutionized the concept of using Polytetra Methylene Terapathalate (PTMT SYMET) by producing finest quality showers, faucets and many other bathroom accessories.

We are an inventor and undisputed leader in this arena, having monopoly in the PTMT segment. Having carved our niche in this field, we have been experiencing a rise in the demand of our products. It is due to our increased market share and devotion to completely satisfy customers, we have expanded our product range from 200 to 2500 products today. To introduce desired line of attractive and quality based products, we have invested in R&D and production facilities. Our brand has attained a strong foothold in the industry by sincerely manufacturing a cost-effective line of pipes & fittings, hardware fittings, sanitaryware, etc. It is due to high cost-effectiveness that our line of Hardware Fittings, Piping Solutions, and more are admired by famous Indian institutions such as Defence, CPWD, Indian Railways, SAIL, ONGC, N.T.P.C., BHEL, BSNL, State PWDs and Defence Ordinance Factories. Not limited to aforesaid but also by Private Residential Builders, Architects, Real Estate Companies and Public & Commercial Enterprises, we are admired by all for supplying our highly appealing and functionality line across the country through our impressive and large network of 12,000 dealers.
