ABOUT US

Hello ! We are OM FLEX INDIA, based in New Delhi, India, and are one of the leading manufacturers in flexible packaging across India. We provide a comprehensive range of packaging solutions, primarily in PE surfaces. We are a quality conscious organisation, operating and satisfying it's customers since last 30 years.

Our product range has always been recyclable and environmental friendly. It consists of Plastic Packaging Bags, Diaper Packaging, Bread Packaging, Plastic Carry Bags, Tamper Proof Security Bags, Self Adhesive Tape Bags and Zip Lock Bags. We provide tailor-made solutions to our customers and thrive to achieve consistency and customer retention through stringent QC and competitive pricing.

We have developed an advanced manufacturing unit consisting of some of the top machineries trending in global market. We have complete plant which includes extrusion, flexographic printing, bag making and converting machines under 1 roof. A team of adroit professionals is employed by us, who ensure that the specification laid down by our customers are met precisely. Right from the initial stages of granule purchasing to final dispatch, our products are tested on multiple quality parameters to ensure consistency. A testimony to our success lies in the prestigious clientele list we hold. We serve some of the top business houses and corporates of the country such as Adidas Group, DLF Group, Samsung, Network18 Group, RSPL Group, Aditya Birla Group, Amazon, Instakart Group which comprises of Flipkart, Myntra and Jabong, etc.

Under the capable leadership and useful guidance of our mentor, Mr. Arun Goel, we have succeeded to get an edge over our competitors. The credit of our flourishing success goes to his valuable guidance and enormous understanding of the respective domain. Starting from grass-root level, Mr. Goel has gained immaculate experience in this market, which has only helped us to set higher organizational objectives each time we surpass the previous targets achieved. Constant motivation has led us to achieve great heights in plastic industry.
