PRODUCT
SOURCINGProducts .. You name and we can source them !!!

As your product sourcing specialist we can keep track of all your supply requirements with our product sourcing solutions. From supplier evaluation to negotiation, inventory management and supplier performance management we can manage the whole process setting up supplier accounts, controlling costs and allocating resources as required.

We perform a comprehensive search across India for the best possible quality with a cost effective solution for your product requirement. We will arrange for a product samples from manufacturers, evaluate the quality and forward all samples to you for your approval.

We will also help determine total cost from production to shipping to your destination. We will consult you on all aspects of the export/import process including certifications, compliance and more.

We carry out with business as exporters of all types of objects that are commercial or industrial in nature (hazardous / non-hazardous). The speciality of our business deal is that we act as intermediaries, Factor Agents, indenting and del credere Agents.

We are also consultants to any person or company that wishes to carry out projects and products whether it is in India or away from the country. We deal with your existing suppliers as per your agreed terms or we can search and provide more options like your existing suppliers. We coordinate with the suppliers for the payments & deliveries. Once the goods are export ready, we take care of all the logistic part and documentation process for the export.

BREAK

For your bulk orders of Grains, Pulses & more !!

Break Bulk cargo is a consignment of cargo carried without the use of containers (in bulk, by piece).

Though break bulk is the oldest mode of transport, this process is the most complex of all export processes. The complexity of transportation of breaking bulk is in ensuring control of the quality of the packaging and careful handling of it throughout the transportation route.

Our inhouse specialist team of agents, with their expertise will make sure of the smooth purchasing process, getting bulk goods to the warehouse facility near the port, storage of the goods, getting the break bulk booking and loading the goods in a vessel in a timely manner and with professional execution.

LOGISTICS

Goods ready but not sure how to proceed ?

Do not worry. We provide full logistic support to export your FCL, LCL and Air cargo from picking up deliveries, checking your goods, obtaining required certificates, custom clearance and export documentation to dispatching the container/cargo to your destination port/country.

We make the complicated process of Export totally hasslefree for our clients. and we keep track and update our clients until the container/cargo is cleared and reached clients' warehouse.
