About Us

We are Praxis Industries, a prestigious company that strives to provide high-quality industrial products at competitive prices in the national market. We have established ourselves as the go-to manufacturer, trader, and supplier since we first entered the industry in 2002 with our dependable range of Brake Head Bolt, Crane Wheel, Stainless Steel Dies, Electric Locomotives Components, Fabricated Components, etc. This status did not come easily, and it has taken years of hard work, dedication, and determination to get to where we are today. We intend to maintain and improve our position in the coming years by continuously improving the quality of our product line and raising customer service standards.

Our company has emerged as a reliable firm in the industry because of its ethical business policies and transparent dealings. Moreover, we have expanded our business reach from West Bengal to other states of India. Under the guidance of Mr. Saikat Sarkar (Proprietor), our company has achieved all its business goals within specified time period.
