A close-up, dark-toned photograph of a dragon sculpture. The dragon's head is on the right, with its mouth open, showing a sharp, white, pointed tongue. The dragon's body is covered in intricate, overlapping scales that are dark blue and black. The background is a deep, dark blue. In the center, there is a logo consisting of two overlapping diamonds, one light blue and one light yellow, with a textured, stone-like appearance.
