

ANMEE TECH PRIVATE LIMITED

PROFILE

THE COMPANY

AnMee Tech Pvt. Ltd. is an entrepreneurial venture by a Professional Technocrat. It has its origins in a business venture incorporated in 1989 (from which the present AnMee Tech Pvt. Ltd was established in 2003) with the aim and belief that Speciality Industrial Adhesives like Anaerobic and Cyanoacrylate Adhesives could be manufactured in India to International Standards by Quality conscious Indian entrepreneurs.

Today we are proud to have more than fulfilled that commitment.

The Company has its Registered Office, Production unit and Sales office in Mumbai city.

Apart from Anaerobic and Cyanoacrylate Adhesives, the Company has in its range PVA based Hot Melt Adhesives, RTV Silicones and Specialty Monomers.

We have developed numerous applications, trained customer personnel to reduce adhesive consumption and worked as consultants rather than suppliers. It is this marketing niche that has given us a strong identity in the crowded marketplace alongside many competitors, both large and Small, International & Local.

THE PROMOTER

The promoter, Mr. Anand Deshpande, has close to 40 years of experience in the field of Anaerobic and Cyanoacrylate Adhesives and has a major share in the introduction of this technology in India.

He has held more than 100 in house seminars in Indian Industry to promote the use of these technologies.
