About Us

Asafoetida is widely used in Indian medicines and cooking. It is found in major homes in India, either in powdered form or granular form. This is because it adds a great flavour to cereals, vegetables, curries, and other dishes. Aside from being a common ingredient in Indian cuisine, it is also a traditional solution for stomach problems and digestion. We, Maa Sheetla Traders, have been dealing with asafoetida since 2012 with the aim to meet demands of numerous customers. In our product portfolio, we provide Raw Asafoetida, Hing Dana, Hing Goli, Hing Nukra, Hing Peda, Hing Powder, and Hing Taijak. We accept bulk orders and maintain a good delivery system to ensure that the quality hing reaches the customers in the best quality.

With our rich domain expertise, we have significantly expanded our business. Our unwavering commitment to quality Hing Powder and Raw Asafoetida has established us as a leading manufacturer in and around Hathras, Uttar Pradesh, India. Managing projects from concept to completion, providing exceptional products, and developing strong customer relationships are just a few of our many strengths that have earned us praise and recognition. Furthermore, our customers prefer to work with us because we complete all orders as promptly as possible and at prices that are unrivalled in the industry.
