About Us

At Saptraag, purity isn't a promise we make once, rather it is a standard we hold across every category we touch. Whether you're lighting a diya at home or sourcing raw material for your own production line, you get the same uncompromising quality.

Our range starts with Bhimseni Camphor- 100% natural and true to its ancient purity, because nothing should touch the sacred flame that isn't real. We back it with Paraffin Wax and Gelatin Powder, refined to the consistency and standard serious manufacturers demand, batch after batch.
