About Us

Leveraging extensive industry experience and a robust distribution network, we, J. S. Pumps, effectively serve requirements of customers from diverse industries with our range of pumps. We are a quality-conscious company known as a manufacturer, supplier, and trader of Rumi Submersible Pumps, Self Priming Submersible Pumps, Monoblock Pumps, and more. This energy-efficient range adheres to industry standards, making it ideal for a wide range of commercial and residential applications where quality and sustainability are considered more than important. Since 2007, we have been continuously striving for excellence in all aspects of business. Today, we work diligently to achieve outstanding performance in the domain. We take pride in being a leading brand which never compromises on the reliability, durability, efficiency, or longevity of the product range.

Under the leadership of Ms. Jyoti Sushil, our Proprietor, we have managed to attain greater heights of success in less than two decades of our existence. In addition, his skills, ability to understand market changes, and make commendable decisions have made our company truly successful in the field.
