

Magnetic Separator

Product Description:

Magnetic Separators are designed for efficient removal of ferrous particles from conveyor systems and bulk materials. These systems improve product quality, protect industrial machinery, and enhance operational efficiency in industries such as mining, recycling, cement, and material handling applications.