About Us

We, S J Ladders have started our journey in 2013 as a manufacturer, supplier, trader and distributor. Having understood the market demands of Aluminium Extension Ladders, Tilted Tower Ladders, Aluminium Wide Step Ladders, Aluminium Self Supporting Extension Ladders, Aluminium Round Pipe Ladders, we have prepared ourselves in such a way that our products can cater to the fullest on the requirements of the products. And, our claim is being justified by the fact that we have been operating our business in Indian market for almost a decade from Delhi. However, we have started our manufacturing journey on three basic philosophies of manufacturing guidelines such as low cost, simple design and durability of the products.

Before delving into the manufacturing process, we make sure that design and specification of the product must be conveyed to the working staff so that the dimensions, load-bearing capacity, and convenient structural design are prepared in great detail. Moreover, we also try to deliver the products on time and for it, we have an expanded network of distribution which make it feasible to happen. Our proprietor - Mr. Naresh Srivastava, a great motivator and mentor with sharp business skills have been making the operation of business smooth and fruitful for years. Moreover, he puts focus on the quality of the products and delivery on time.

We, S J Ladders came into existence in 2013 (Delhi), with a mission to produce products such as Aluminium Ladders, Aluminium Extension Ladders, Tilted Tower Ladders, Aluminium Wide Step Ladders which can comply with the market demands. Our material selection process is very detailed as per industry norms so that we can manufacture the products which can satisfy the requirements of the clients in exact manner. Additionally, we are also very particular about the delivery of the products. We make sure that once the order is final, we speed up our process to make the delivery in time. Apart from this, we keep updating our professionals with the changing requirements of the clients, so that nothing falls short of the perfection.
