About Us

As the name suggests, KVH Agro Tech Private Limited is a company specializing in a wide range of agricultural equipment, tools, and machinery. Established as manufacturers and suppliers in the market, we are not too old in the business, but we are still referred to as one of the most reliable partners of the customers. Our offered range of Power Weeder Cultivators, Surry Ridgers, Tractor PTO Operated Water Pumps, Agriculture Levelers, and other products is highly noted for its exceptional quality features. High durability, reliability, functionality, and resistance to corrosion are some features that make these products stand out in the market. However, owing to these reasons, customers choose them over the other ones in the market.

Set up in 2021, our Khed (Maharashtra, India)-based manufacturing company, KVH Agro Tech Private Limited, is continually setting benchmarks in the industry. By ethically pulling off all the business operations, ensuring transparency across the dealings, and bringing forth a range of best-in-class agricultural machines and equipment, we have carved a niche for ourselves in the market. Today, customers are recognized as the most dependable provider in the market, timely meeting their demands for Agriculture Levelers, Tractor PTO Operated Water Pumps, Surry Ridgers, Power Weeder Cultivators, and other products. Our products are of the finest quality and are available at never-seen-before prices across different parts of the country. Thus, owing to the aforesaid, they are always in high demand, and we sincerely meet them on time.
