About Us

Entered the business to create ripples in the industry, we, Patthar House, are one of the budding traders and suppliers, offering a broad range of top-quality Indian granite and Indian marble. A year or so down the line, we have already secured a reputable position in the market. The products we offer include Rainforest Bidasar Gold Marbles, Rainforest Bidasar Brown Marbles, Bengal Black Granites, Bianco Antico Granites, and others. Committed to meticulous craftsmanship and unmatched quality, we connect with noteworthy vendors in the market to procure our products. The vendors are widely popular for their transparent business dealings, systematic workflow, high attention to detail, and many other reasons. Cost-effectiveness and quality products are two more important factors for which our vendors are famous, and we choose them. Each product that we procure is highly durable, modern in design, lustrous, and smooth on the edges. Thus, the products are completely worthy of the money spent on them.

Patthar House is a Kishangarh (Rajasthan, India)-based trading company known for offering a comprehensive range of Indian granite and Indian marble. Our product portfolio includes Bianco Antico Granites, Bengal Black Granites, Rainforest Bidasar Brown Marbles, Rainforest Bidasar Gold Marbles, and others. Procured from reliable vendors in the market, all our products are of superior quality. However, as a trustworthy partner for several customers around the nation, with the help of our professionals, we test the products on different industrial parameters. As a result, we only deliver to our valued customers products that are par excellence at pocket-friendly prices. Moreover, we focus our attention on strengthening our relationships with customers and vendors. Both help us stay ahead of the market competition. Within a short time period, we have emerged as a notable name in the industry.
