About Us

We, Rhishikesh Engineers Pvt. Ltd., are a reputable manufacturer and exporter of Jaggery Cube and Jaggery Powder. We have established ourselves as a dominant entity in the market by committing to bringing the pure and tastiest jaggery right to our customers doorsteps. Our quest began with a desire to provide healthy, natural substitutes for refined sugars, we started our business of selling jaggery. We make our range by procuring the best sugarcane and processing it with care. Our jaggery powder is a flexible sweetener that may be used in baking, cooking, or to sweeten your favorite beverages, while our jaggery cubes provide a wonderful and practical way to enjoy this classic Indian treat.

We make sure that every batch of jaggery we create follows the highest standards, with a focus on quality, sustainability, and customer happiness. You can rely on our company to procure the best jaggery products for a healthier option since we are committed to authenticity and purity. We appreciate you choosing us to be your source for jaggery, and we look forward to providing you with the benefits of this natural sweetener.

Rhishikesh Engineers Pvt. Ltd. caters to customer demands associated with quality Jaggery Powder and Jaggery Cube. Since 1989, our Nashik, Maharashtra, India-based company has been operational in the respective domain and serving customers up to the mark of their expectations. A team of dedicated professionals supports us in carrying out our daily business operations. We are happy to see that customers have always placed their trust in us, and the repetitive business from our clients is proof of commitment to excellence. We also make sure to adhere to the norms of the food industry as this enables us to maintain the optimal quality, hygiene, and authentic taste of jaggery.
