

Checked Rooftop Flooring

This image shows a large rooftop or terrace area covered with a checkered tile pattern. The flooring alternates between red and white square tiles, creating a clean and visually appealing geometric design. Such flooring is commonly used for terraces, outdoor patios, sports areas, and open spaces due to its durability and decorative appearance. The surrounding urban environment suggests the rooftop is part of a residential or commercial building.