About Us

Daya International is a prominent name in the Indian footwear manufacturing industry, that was established in 2018. We founded the company on a basis of innovation, commitment, and quality. We design, and manufacture, a variety of shoes for the new consumers varying from school shoes, casual shoes, sport shoes and even more combinations of shoes, which all come with both comfort, style, quality and durability.

With an emphasis on performance, sustainability and excellent quality, we have built two industry-leading footwear brands Reedox and Kiksta, each functioning in their own consumer segment but aligned in standards of quality and workmanship. We aim to deliver shoes to our customers that provide value to your customers and lasting performance for the end user.
