About Us

Kunal Calcium Limited was founded in 1997 as a Private Limited Company, with the primary focus being the production of Precipitated Calcium Carbonate for a wide range of applications. Mr. Ashok Nayyar, the promoter of Kunal Calcium Limited, saw the product's potential and made the decision to invest in process growth, technological advancement, and ongoing product development, starting with an initial capacity of 10,000 MT annually. In less than ten years, the company, with the help of a group of committed specialists, has reached a production capacity of 50,000 metric tons annually. Our organization is currently run by a group of vibrant business people that are committed to expansion and implementing a more customer-centric strategy throughout our operations. Kunal Calcium Limited led from the front, expanded its reach into new regions, and solidified its position and strength both domestically and internationally as its production capacity progressively increased several times over. A significant milestone was reached in 2006 when the company went public and became known as Kunal Calcium Limited.

After a long journey, Kunal Calcium Limited is now among the biggest producers of precipitated calcium carbonate, with an annual production capacity of 72,000 MT.
