About Us

Kur Overseas is a budding company known as a trader and supplier of Brown Egg, White Egg, Brown Coconut, Fresh Chicken, Fresh Mutton, etc. All our products are quality assured and available for our clients at market-leading costs. The robust infrastructure of our organization enables us to provide a variety of quality-assured products. We possess all the necessary equipment and technology for the washing, testing, and packaging processes of our offerings. Additionally, our extensive warehouse space, designated for our finished goods, ensures that our inventory remains consistently stocked, allowing us to efficiently fulfill the bulk and urgent orders of our clients.

The rise in instances of food product adulteration has heightened public concern regarding the quality of these items. We recognize that a single misstep on our part could jeopardize the health of many individuals. Therefore, we are committed to ensuring that our product range is of the utmost quality and devoid of any harmful components or substances. To safeguard against the intrusion of dust and dirt, these products are meticulously packaged in sealed containers following rigorous quality testing conducted by our experts. Our inspection and quality assurance processes commence from the moment we acquire our materials and continue until the products are successfully delivered to our clients. Our dedication to providing quality-assured products has not only fostered client trust but has also significantly contributed to customer retention.
