Polynet Envelopes

Office, Courier & Document Use

Polynet envelopes are lightweight, easy to handle, and suitable for both retail and bulk usage. They are widely used by offices, businesses, institutions, and courier services where document safety is important.

BENEFITS OF POLYNET ENVELOPES :

- Strong and tear-resistant polynet material
- Smooth surface with clean professional look
- Suitable for office documents & courier use
- Lightweight yet durable structure
- Easy sealing for secure packaging
- Ideal for daily business communication

Cloth-Lined Envelopes

Secure Office & Document Use

Cloth lined envelopes are commonly used for legal papers, certificates, contracts, and official documents. They offer a premium feel, better durability, and a professional appearance suitable for formal communication.

BENEFITS OF CLOTH-LINED ENVELOPES :

- Inner cloth lining for added strength
- Prevents tearing and document damage
- Ideal for legal & confidential documents
- Premium look for professional use
- Strong sealing for secure packaging
- Suitable for retail and bulk orders
