About Us

Vital Herbs is dedicated to supplying the highest quality and most effective herbal products, nutraceutical innovators, and herbal product formulators around the world. Being a manufacturer, supplier, and importer of premium-grade herbal powders and nutraceutical ingredients, the aim is to nurture health with nature with the help of scientific accuracy and ancient Ayurvedic knowledge. Its consistent commitment to purity has seen every extract and botanical powder produced using soft processing methods to maintain bioactive compounds and provide maximum absorption and efficacy. The portfolio has a sophisticated range of natural wellness products such as cucumber extract powder, acacia arabica powder, harad extract powder, bhumi amla powder, vitamin d3 powder, swarna bhasma powder, nagarmotha agarbatti powder, maca root powder, and bael fruit powder. These ingredients are produced in the most responsible way, and sources are known cultivators who have undergone strict inspection and are processed in a controlled environment to provide unparalleled purity with no artificial additives and synthetic fillers.

Each batch is representative of authenticity, uniform particle size, and increased bioavailability, which make them ideal in herbal medicines, functional beverages, dietary supplements, superfood blends, skincare and cosmetic formulations, incense manufacturing, and wellness product lines. Since the extraction is done out of research, with careful testing, all the steps are formed according to the world quality standards and Ayurvedic tradition. In addition to products, Vital Herbs is also adding value in terms of trust, transparency, and technical assistance, which helped the brands develop effective and clean-label wellness solutions. The company has extensive knowledge of herbal science and development levels of manufacturing, and has become a business partner that could be trusted by any company to provide them with premium natural actives and whole botanical ingredients.
