

50PPM Xerox Photocopy Machine

Product Description:

The 50PPM Xerox Photocopy Machine is a high-performance multifunction office device designed for fast and efficient document printing, copying, and scanning operations. With a printing speed of up to 50 pages per minute, this machine is ideal for commercial offices, business organizations, educational institutions, and professional printing environments requiring reliable high-volume document processing.

Built with advanced digital technology, the photocopy machine delivers sharp print quality, smooth paper handling, and user-friendly operation. Its compact yet durable structure ensures long-lasting performance with low maintenance requirements, making it suitable for continuous office use and productivity enhancement.

Key Features: Printing speed up to 50 pages per minute (PPM) Multifunction capabilities including print, scan, and copy High-resolution digital print quality User-friendly control interface Efficient paper handling and document management Durable construction with reliable performance Suitable for heavy office and commercial workloads Applications: Corporate offices, commercial printing centers, schools, documentation centers, business organizations, and professional work environments.