About Us

Modi Meditex is a reliable Manufacturer, Supplier of Male Hernia Belt, Abdominal Belt, Scrotal Support, Female Hernia Belt, Pelvic Binder, and more. This became apparent as our presence grew and we now felt the necessity of having direct control over the quality and supply of products. This contributed to a significant achievement of setting up Modi Meditex, which is our manufacturing division in 2017. This strategic growth helped us control all the production processes and still preserve the same values which characterized Dolphin. We had a simple but effective objective, and that was to always ensure that our customers experienced surpassed expectations due to good products.

Quality, efficiency and innovation were considered in the construction of Modi Meditex. In-sourcing manufacturing enabled us to enhance control over quality, operational efficiency and even consistency of products that we deal with. All processes such as the choice of raw material, all the way to the delivery of the final product are under close supervision to provide quality and safe products.
