About Us

SJNYM is a leading supplier of premium-quality agricultural products from India. Backed by a strong farmer network and modern processing facilities, we deliver spices, grains, pulses, organic foods, and many other agricultural products to international markets with uncompromising quality standards. We take pride in being a farmer-owned organization, ensuring that our products are cultivated with care, processed hygienically, and delivered with consistency. The integrity of products throughout the procurement process to final dispatch is ensured by our systematically managed handling procedures.

Our product portfolio includes whole spices, ground spices, custom spice blends, and various pulses, processed under hygienic conditions using modern cleaning, grinding, and packaging techniques. Every stage of our operation - from sourcing to shipment - is guided by strict quality control and food safety practices aligned with global standards.
