

Calcium Chloride Powder

Calcium Chloride Powder is a white, odorless, hygroscopic inorganic compound widely used in industrial, food, pharmaceutical, and construction applications. It is highly soluble in water and is commonly used for moisture absorption, de-icing roads, dust control, concrete acceleration, and water treatment processes.

Key Features:

- White crystalline powder appearance
- Excellent moisture absorption properties
- High solubility in water
- Suitable for industrial and commercial applications