About Us

Laces are increasingly popular in the textile sector owing to their successful application in clothing pieces, fabrics, etc. Kurtis, sarees, shararas and dupattas, etc., are some garments that need use of fancy, designer and stunning laces. Realizing value of laces in finished textile products, our corporation came into being as a quality-driven manufacturer. We have been executing business in this field excellently possessing decades of experience in order to make our contribution to the rising field of textiles. We, Maheshchandra Punemchand Lalwala, are long familiar with changes and modern inclusions in this field and therefore, bring forward high-grade laces and ribbons that match needs of the market.

Our establishment boasts of having a well constructed operational set up to handle a huge production line. We own advanced machines as well as fully automatic crochet looms. Our promising unit works towards becoming a shining example of success by introducing uncommon designs and patterns that hold great capability of grabbing eyeballs in the competitive era. Our manufacturing as well as exporting corporation meets increasing demands of Indian and international companies for superior in quality products with huge degree of perfection. Our designer quality as well as budget-friendly product portfolio having Zari Lace, Metallic Lace, Size Variation Nylon Satin Ribbon, Designer Traditional Lace, Fancy Pulkari Maharani Lace and other products are increasingly getting high ratings in the potential market structure.
