About Us

Handcrafted and painted by skilled artisans, each item we offer reflects timeless traditions rooted in Odisha and Bengal, while resonating with global artistry. Through every creation, we carry forward the essence of Pata Chitra spreading its earthy petrichor one story at a time. From our manufacturer and supplier entity, one can buy Boat to the Past Dokra Brass Framed Artwork, The Evening Harvest Scene Pattachitra on Tassar Silk, Divine Guardians Mandir and many more items. Our mission is to share the enduring beauty of Pata Chitra with the world. Deeply inspired by the rich cultural heritage of Odisha and Bengal, our artworks and painted merchandise bring to life mythological narratives, folklore, and traditional tales. We collaborate closely with artisans who have preserved this craft across generations. We strive to preserve these ancient art forms while presenting them in a contemporary context. Moving beyond traditional scrolls, we reimagine Pata Chitra across diverse mediums. Each creation stands as a testament to intricate craftsmanship, vibrant natural colors, and soulful storytelling ensuring the legacy continues to thrive.

Based in Khurda, our company, Abriella Paintings Private Limited celebrates the rich heritage of Odisha through handcrafted artistry. We specialize in Tribal Art Paintings and traditional folk depictions of Gods and Goddesses, preserving age-old storytelling techniques. Our creations also include elegant Chirping Chimes Jhumar that blend cultural charm with contemporary decor. Working closely with skilled artisans, we ensure authenticity, intricate detailing, and timeless appeal in every piece. Our mission is to bring Odisha's vibrant artistic legacy to modern spaces while supporting and sustaining local craftsmanship for future generations.
