LIFE AND ART

Working with the meditative structure created by architect Tadao Ando, Pierre Pringiers and his wife, Saskia Pintelon, rightly keep accessories to a minimum. While spartan, everything is chosen for its quality, design heritage and natural finishes.

STOOL

This twisted wood stool from MoonRiver is especially good for nooks and corners. (moonriverstore.com)

SOFA

A black leather sofa like the 'Prive' by Philippe Starck for Cassina from the Poltrona Frau Group Design Center, provides the perfect balance between comfort and style. (poltronafraugroup.com)

SIDEBOARD

Make space for this Rive Droite sideboard, designed by Christophe Pillet for Ceccotti Collezioni. This no-frills piece will hold all without telling all. (ceccotticollezioni.it)

COFFEE TABLE

This 'Occa' coffee table from Bo Concept is simple yet beautiful. (boconcept.in)

PAGE 136-141

Dmitry Velikovskiy's Russian apartment has a mixture of pieces from different eras and regions. Southeast Asian accents like a samurai chair contrast nicely against the 19th-century Russian art on the walls.

CENTRE TABLE

This 'Sphinx Monopodiae' centre table by Replica from International Furniture Brands is a great start to your own collection. (ifbrands.in)

ARMCHAIR

Incorporate this wonderful 'Picasso Leather Cigar' chair from House of Raro to add character to your interiors. (houseofraro.com)

CHAIR

For touches of the orient, pick the 'Curule' chair by Pierre Paulin for Ligne Roset from Evoluzione. (44-4239800)

ARTEFACT

Bhuta masks are beautiful pieces of tribal art, and they're fast gaining popularity. Phillips Antiques has plenty of options like this bronze mask, circa 1920s, from Jumadi in coastal Karnataka's Bhuta region. (phillipsantiques.com)
