About Us

ISO 9001:2008 certified Antares Chem Private Limited is a highly regarded supplier, exporter & importer of an assortment of Pharmaceutical & Lab Chemicals. Based at Maharashtra (India), our company was founded in the year 2011 with an aim to become a trusted brand to avail an assortment of chemicals for various industrial applications.

Our product line encompasses Industrial Chemicals, Pharmaceutical Chemicals, Chemicals Powders, Construction Chemicals, Cleaning Chemicals, Laboratory Chemical, Food Chemicals, Cosmetic Ingredients and several others. Procured from leading vendors in the industry, all our offered products are acclaimed for accurate composition, purity, effective results and long shelf life. Backed with a well segregated infrastructure that is maintained by our proficient team members, we are successfully offering goods for a number of industrial applications. Imported from China, Taiwan, Korea, Asian and European countries, our products are widely appreciated and demanded by our valued clients. Strong financial position and a huge distribution network add to the reasons of our industrial success. Moreover, working under the guidance of our mentor, Mr Hemang Khetani, we have marked an excellent growth in our domain and proved our industrial credibility in a significant manner.

Infrastructure Facilities

Supported by sophisticated company infrastructure, we can successfully keep up to the expectations of our prestigious clients. Separated in a number of units, our infrastructure assists us in performing all in-house activities in a timely manner and attaining a satisfied client base in domestic as well as international marketplace. All departments of our infrastructure are well-managed by our proficient team members, who carry out all company strategies in the most efficient manner. Also, we manage complete quality structure at all stages and effectively fulfill the demands of our valued clients for all kinds of cleaning chemicals, food chemicals and all other products.

Client Satisfaction

As a quality focused organization, we have always believed in delivering optimum quality products and attain a satisfied clientele across the world. Focusing on the maximum client satisfaction, we procure all goods from trusted vendors and keep them under quality checks to ensure quality is given the prime importance under our brand. Apart from the quality standard of the products, we also ensure to deliver goods in a committed time frame to prove our domain excellence.
