

Hand Flat Knitting Machine

Description:

This hand flat knitting machine is designed for producing flat knitted fabrics used in sweaters, scarves, mufflers, collars, cuffs, and similar garments. It operates manually, making it suitable for small-scale production, sampling, and training. The machine offers adjustable stitch density and supports various gauges for versatile knitting applications. Its sturdy construction ensures reliable performance and long service life.