

High Speed Overlock Machine

Description:

High Speed Overlock Machine is designed for professional edge stitching and seam finishing in garment manufacturing. It delivers high-speed performance with clean, durable overlock stitches, preventing fabric fraying. Suitable for cotton, polyester, knitted fabrics, and blended materials, it features differential feed, smooth operation, and reliable performance for industrial sewing applications.