About Us

The idea of gaining customers attention starts with promising quality but the idea of retaining them, begins with providing promised quality standards of products. Gaining attention of numerous Indian clients and retaining them in the long run is our forte as we commit and offer supreme class of CNC Telescope Cover Machine Parts. We are Supreme Industries, a manufacturer and supplier of CNC Telescopic Wiper, CNC VMC Telescopic Wiper, CNC Machine Bellow, Red Rubber C2 Lip Wiper and similar products. Just like the name of our company, our products are also of supreme quality standards because for manufacturing them we use tested raw materials and apply advanced techniques of production. Never in our one decade of industrial presence have we ever received defamatory remarks for our products and it is the result of our consistent focus over maintaining a quality based line to turn monetary investment of customers, extremely profitable.

Supreme Industries has become a preferred partner for companies to source superior quality CNC Telescope Cover Machine Parts. Our offerings like C2 Casing with C2 PU Rubber, Red Rubber C2 Lip Wiper, Bellow Cover, CNC Telescope Cover Machine Parts and many others are accessible in standard designs and dimensions to suit needs of different customers. Aforementioned products are produced with prime grade raw materials at our own production house in N.I.T. Faridabad (Haryana, India). We follow industrial norms with strictness to ensure our products are of highest quality standards. Our precision developed and durable line of machine parts is perfect in every aspect, from structure to performance and price.
