About Us

Originated even before the independence of India, Shalimar Chemical Works Private Ltd. is completely an Indian brand name, that laid its foundation stone by the hands of its founder Late Prakritinath Bhattacharjee in 1941. An year later, the company partnered with Late Panchanan Mondal and in 1945 is was incorporated by both of these partners. The products offered by us comprising Shalimar Kachi Ghani Mustard Oil, Shalimar Sunflower Oil, Cooking Oil, Spice & Seasoning Powders, Coconut Oil, Coconut Edible Oil, Medicated Coconut Oil, Non Stick Oil, Mustard Oil, Edible Oil, Vegetable Oil, Meat Masala, Coconut Oil, Cooking Oil, Ayurvedic Jasmine Oil, Ayurvedic Oil, Coconut Edible Oil, Chef Spices, Popular Spices including Chilli Powder, Coriander Powder, Turmeric Powder, Cumin Powder, Refined Sunflower Oil, Kachi Ghani Mustard Oil etc. still leads the international market place in spite of ever increasing competition.

The company Shalimar Chemical Works Private Ltd was founded in the year 1941, and its first manufacturing unit of Shalimar Coconut Essential Oil, Refined Edible Cooking Oil, Cooking Masala Powder, Sabji Masala Powder was operational in a place that is adjacent to Narkeldanga Main Road in the northern part of Kolkata. The story began about seven decades ago in the year 1945, and since then, the brand has created and carved a distinguished position in the hearts of its esteemed customers all across the world. A Bengali entrepreneur from a small town Shibpur, Howrah saw a dream of planting a unit at the other bank of river Ganges, which flows through two completely opposite cities. In these years, we have excelled through our stringent sales strategies, continuous up gradation of quality of our Coconut Oil and leadership qualities. Considered to be the leading Manufacturer and Exporter of these unparalleled product line, we have survived and risen both in domestic as well as global market in specially in countries like Nepal, Canada, Bhutan, Bangladesh, UAE, etc. Expanding our horizons beyond these boundaries is what we presently aim at, while maintaining the quality and purity throughout the processing of Coconut Oil. Our vision and mission is to gain a strong foothold in African and middle East markets.
