About Us

Established in the year 2000, Jey Ess Hangers has emerged as one of India's leading manufacturers and suppliers of premium-quality hangers and garment accessories. With over two decades of industry experience, we have built a strong reputation for delivering durable, innovative, and cost-effective solutions to customers across the country. Our extensive product portfolio includes Clip Hanger, Kitchen Steel Hangers and Clothes Hanger, etc. Our success is driven by a dedicated Research & Development team that continuously introduces innovative ideas and designs, enabling us to offer a diverse and evolving product range. To ensure superior quality, our manufacturing facility is equipped with advanced machinery, modern tools, and state-of-the-art technology that help us produce highly efficient, durable, and aesthetically appealing products.

Our team of skilled, experienced, and committed professionals works diligently to manufacture products that meet the highest industry standards. The hangers we produce are strong, long-lasting, easy to use, and require minimal maintenance. Designed with care, they are rust-resistant and ensure complete protection for garments without causing any damage. Over the years, we have established ourselves as a trusted and ethical organization known for reliability, transparency, and customer satisfaction. Our competitive pricing structure enables customers to receive exceptional value, while our customization capabilities allow us to deliver products tailored to specific size, design, and functional requirements. Under the visionary leadership of Mr. Gasbir Singh, our Manager, the company has achieved remarkable growth and recognition in the industry. His dedication, strategic vision, and deep industry expertise have played a pivotal role in strengthening our market presence and earning the trust of our valued clients. His leadership continues to inspire our commitment to excellence, innovation, and customer-centric service. Today, our stands as a preferred choice for businesses seeking high-quality hanger solutions, backed by exceptional craftsmanship, reliable service, and a commitment to continuous improvement.
