About Us

We, Electrov8 Private Limited, began our legacy of excellence in 1994. With over two decades of presence in the market, we have emerged as an innovative manufacturer and supplier of various electronic accessories. We are highly trusted in the market for buying Economy SMPS Adaptor, Laptop Power Cord, Desktop Power Cord, Black HDMI Cable, Smart Battery Charger, Metal Power Strip, 3 Pin Travel Universal Adaptor, and many other products. We started our operations with fewer resources and a mission to become a company that would redefine the standards of the industry.

The success story that we have in the industry is a testament to our deep dedication, passion, and unwavering commitment to deliver exceptional products to customers. Further, our deep-rooted belief in quality, customer-centricity, and integrity has helped us cover a long way in this industry and have an inspiring success story.

We value every customer, regardless of the order size. This approach of ours makes us the prime choice of numerous customers across the market. Our professionals remain available to customers by quickly answering their inquiries, delivering products, and assisting in selecting the right product. The professionals completely guide customers by providing technical information about the offered electronic accessories and their suitability for products of different brands. We gain the interest of customers in our company by offering high comfort and ease to every buyer. Our products are provided to customers after a quality check, and in many models, designs, and specifications. With the wide availability of our entire stock, we fulfill the demands of a huge clientele.
