About Us

Carter Unique Group stands as a premier global innovator in color sorting technology, redefining industry standards through precision, reliability, and technological superiority. As a distinguished division of Unique Color Sorter, we have established ourselves as a name synonymous with excellence in the color sorting industry across Asia and beyond.

Founded in 2017, the company was originally known as Unique Color Sorter before being rebranded as Carter Unique Group to reflect its evolution and expansion in the industry. With over a decade of expertise, our journey began with a vision to revolutionize color sorting solutions with cutting-edge innovation. Founded by visionary technocrat Mr. Ravinder Mann, Carter Unique Group thrives on a legacy of over 20 years of experience in designing, engineering, and deploying advanced sorting machines.
